NOW HIRING (October 2016):

EMERGENCY & CRITICAL CARE VETERINARIAN

Opportunity

A progressive, family-owned, boutique referral veterinary hospital seeks an Emergency Veterinarian to join our growing team! Experienced or internship-trained DVMs are preferred, but training and mentorship will be provided to the right individual. Full and part-time positions are available. The ideal candidate will practice the highest standards of medicine, possess strong interpersonal skills, demonstrate a team-based approach to patient care, and appreciate a client-centric business philosophy.

About Us

Animal Emergency & Specialty (AES) (www.aesvets.com; www.facebook.com/AESVets) is a family-owned (non-corporate), 24-hour, small-animal emergency and specialty hospital, located in picturesque and pet-friendly Kirkland, Washington (<http://youtu.be/XdIlkxLVVrg>). We have been in business for over 30 years and recently moved into our beautiful, state-of-the-art facility.

The Emergency Veterinarian will work alongside our board-certified surgeon, board-certified critical care specialist, and other talented ER doctors. All doctors are supported by an exceptional team of nurses and staff. We value our collegial, collaborative work environment.

Compensation & Benefits

AES offers highly competitive wages and comprehensive benefits to include medical, dental, hearing, and vision insurance; employer-matched retirement plan; continuing education, licensing, professional membership, and uniform allowances; pet-care discounts; and more! AES is an equal opportunity employer.

How to Apply

Qualified applicants are encouraged to email a cover letter and résumé to Kathie O’Hanlon, Hospital Administrator, at <mailto:kathie@aesvets.com>. No telephone inquiries, please.
