NOW HIRING (June 2017): EMERGENCY AND CRITICAL CARE DVM

Opportunity

A progressive, non-corporate, referral veterinary hospital seeks an Emergency and Critical Care Associate to join our growing team. Full- and part-time positions are available. Both experienced veterinarians and recent graduates who have completed internships are invited to apply. The ideal candidate will practice the highest standards of medicine, possess strong communication and interpersonal skills, demonstrate a team-based approach to patient care, and appreciate a client-centric business philosophy.

The Emergency and Critical Care Associate will work alongside our board-certified surgeon, board-certified critical care specialist, and skilled emergency veterinarians. An exceptional team of nurses and administrative staff support all doctors. Our beautiful, state-of-the-art hospital includes a custom-designed Triage Examination Room. We value our collegial, collaborative work environment.

About Kirkland

AES is located in picturesque and pet-loving Kirkland, a flourishing Seattle suburb on the eastern shore of Lake Washington (the Eastside). Not only does the Eastside boast award-winning schools, restaurants, shopping centers, and wineries, it is also home to numerous corporate headquarters and campuses, including Google, Microsoft, Costco, and T-Mobile. The immediate and surrounding areas provide cultural and outdoor activities year round. You can hit the slopes, dine at a Zagat-rated bistro, and catch a professional sports game—all in one day!

About Us

Animal Emergency & Specialty (AES) (www.facebook.com/AESVets) is the premier, non-corporate, 24-hour veterinary hospital on Seattle's Eastside. Our compassionate team utilizes the latest medical techniques in our pet-, people- and eco-friendly facility to provide the highest standard of care. We take pride in offering cutting-edge medicine and outstanding client service.

Family-owned since 1980, AES has strong community ties. We regularly collaborate with over eighty referring hospitals, ensuring continuity of care for mutual patients. Through our partnership with local animal rescue groups, we help less fortunate pets get the medical care they need so they can find new forever homes. In conjunction with first responders and regional animal service organizations, we assist in reuniting lost pets with their families. We also participate in many fun, pet-related events throughout the year!

Compensation & Benefits

AES offers highly competitive wages and comprehensive benefits to include medical, dental, hearing, and vision insurance; signing/relocation bonus; employer-matched retirement plan; continuing education, licensing, professional membership, and uniform allowances; pet-care discounts; and more!

How to Apply

Qualified applicants are encouraged to email a cover letter and résumé to Kathie O'Hanlon, Hospital Administrator, at <mailto:kathie@aesvets.com>. AES is an equal opportunity employer. We look forward to hearing from you!
